He is married to Katrina Leonard, the father of two sons, Kobe Cotton and Tyshaun Leonard, and grandfather of Memphis Cotton and Demi Silvan. The first-born son of four incredible children born to Pastor Tyrone and Lady Glenda Leonard. He was reared by parents who took him to church, living out their commitment to the Lord. In addition to inheriting a godly heritage, his parents inspired him to excel and give his best at every opportunity. His father often said, "A black man with an education is dangerous, but a black man with an education and God as the head of his life is UNSTOPPABLE." After graduating high school, he attended Southern University but later transferred to Southeastern Louisiana University, where he attained an Associate and Bachelor's degree. After accepting his calling from the Lord, he received his Minister's License and was later ordained to preach the gospel. Shortly, therefore, he received his Bachelor of Divinity from Andersonville Theological Seminary in Camilla, Georgia. He pursued his master's degree in ministry from Luther Rice College and Seminary in Lithonia, Ga. He recently received his doctoral in Ministry in Pastoral Leadership in December 2020.

Lashaun Leonard is passionate about serving God and God's people and seeing lives transformed by the power of God. He founded a nonprofit organization, promoting change and assistance to those in need. Lashaun Leonard launched the Freedom Fellowship podcast daily, inspiring people globally. One would find him teaching Sunday School on Sunday mornings on Facebook Live. Not only does he provide service for the Kingdom of God, but service to families and children in the community. He strives to Achieve in every field of Human endeavor, being a Member of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity. His God-given Vision for the Mount is: to touch and Cultivate lives for Christ throughout the Community of Baton Rouge by offering a loving and caring worship environment for the kingdom of GOD.

In his spare time, he enjoys reading, listening to inspired messages, discussing the word of God, spending time with his family, pouring into the lives of the brokenhearted, and shopping. His favorite scripture is Psalms 46:1, "God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble."
